

ANTHRACITE MINERS GO TO WORK MONDAY

WAGE AGREEMENT IS RATIFIED LAST NIGHT BY HARD COAL DIGGERS

New Contract Calls for the Same Wages as Were Received When Work Was Suspended March 31—Will be in Effect Until August 31, 1923—Never Known as a Strike

(By The Associated Press)
WILKES BARRE, Pa., Sept. 9.—The anthracite wage agreement sending the miners back to work at once after more than five months of idleness was ratified by the tri-district convention of the hard coal diggers tonight.

Under the agreement 155,000 mine workers return to work at the rate of wages they received when they suspended mining on March 31. The new contract will be in effect until August 31 next year when a new arrangement is to be negotiated in the light of a report to be made by a commission which both sides recommend be created by congress to investigate every phase of the anthracite inquiry.

The peace pact was ratified by a vive voce vote. Immediately after the ratification a motion was unanimously adopted lifting the suspension at once and the men will be permitted to return to work on Monday. As soon as the convention adjourned leaders of the United Mine Workers immediately made preparations to have the formal contract signed by both sides at Scranton on Monday.

RECORD BUSINESS IS TRANSACTED BY SENATE SATURDAY

One Hundred and Sixty Five Bills Pass in About Three Hours

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—Record business was recorded in the senate today when 165 bills and resolutions were passed in about three hours, or almost at the rate of one a minute. The measures were disposed of as fast as presiding officers and overworked clerks could read the bills and go thru the necessary routine.

The record said to be a high water level for either senate or house during the present and several recent sessions, was made possible under a unanimous consent agreement for consideration only of unobjectionable bills. Absence of a large part of the senate—only about a dozen senators being present—also contributed to the speedy action.

Most of the bills were private claim measures including a number musty with age, dating back to the civil war. Included were damages for taking of property by the government for injuries sustained by government airplanes, mail trucks and other apparatus, for losses suffered by postmasters and other casualties. General legislation which went thru the senate was the bill to permit retention of American citizenship by women.

This business already passed by the house provides that American women shall not lose their citizenship thru marriage to an alien unless she formally renounces her government. An exception is made in the cases of women who marry aliens ineligible to American citizenship. Alien women would not become American citizens thru their marriage to naturalized aliens but only thru their own act in securing naturalization. Legislation asked by the department of justice to aid in prosecution of the war fraud cases, authorizing it to bring suits in federal districts where anyone of several defendants and the bringing of other defendants and witnesses to such districts, also was passed.

JUDGMENTS ARE ENTERED BY COURT

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 9.—Judgments of $1,000 each were entered against Perry Mayhall and Willard Smith of Beardstown and of $500 against Charles Parks also of Beardstown, in favor of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad in Federal Judge FitzHenry's court here today.

The three men were charged with contempt of court for alleged violation of the railroad injunction.

The judgments may be withheld because the attorney for the men was not in court when the cases were called.

BOTH SIDES ARE RESTING ON ARMS IN RAIL STRIKE

Are Awaiting Developments of Next Week

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—Aside from a motion asking that the bill of an injunction filed by the government against the striking railway shompen be dismissed on the ground that it is illegal and based on misrepresentation of facts, which was filed in federal court on behalf of the union both strike leaders and railway chiefs did little today awaiting developments the next week was expected to bring forth.

At the same time that the battle against the injunction was begun a carload of evidence, guarded by 35 agents of the department of justice arrived from Washington to be used by the government when the hearing to have the temporary injunction made permanent comes before Federal Judge Willerson on Monday.

Following the departure from the city by Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad there were no formal meetings of the railway executives and it was said that none were in prospect. After the meeting at the Chicago club yesterday an informal session was said to have been held last night at an outlying road house, the pink poodle in an effort to elude newspaper reporters. H. E. Bryan, president of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, authorized the following statement:

"There will be no more meetings of the railroad executives, president Daniel Willard, of the Baltimore & Ohio went back home last night. He may return early in the week.

"It only needed some one to be moved by both sides to act as mediator and Mr. Willard very generously gave his time and ability to the matter. He not only deserves the thanks of the roads and of the men, but of the general public as well. This separate agreement plan is already in practice by the railroad brotherhoods. It will be a new policy for these particular unions however."

"The 'recalcitrant' roads did not in any way object to the rest of us settling the strike separately with the unions, because their attitude is that the strike is no longer of any interest to them."

Union Leaders Arrived.
M. N. union leaders, members of the policy committee of 90 arrived in the city for Monday's meeting and more are expected tomorrow. The meeting will be held coincident with the hearing of the government's petition to make the temporary injunction permanent.

A statement was issued by the association of railway executives asserting that there had been a steady increase in the number of men employed in the shops and that a large volume of business was being moved.

"The number of men employed in the shops of the western railroads had increased on Sept. 8 to 105,870 or 55 per cent of the number before the strike began," the statement said.

In connection with the arrival of evidence to be used at the injunction hearing on Monday, Federal agents said an effort would be made to prove the existence of a nationwide railroad sabotage plot and it was indicated that wholesale indictments would be sought against those held responsible by the government.

The carload of evidence brought to Chicago was said to contain thousands of telegrams, letters, photographs, blue prints and books, with transcripts of statements of 17,000 persons who have been interrogated by federal authorities.

The data was said by high government officials to reveal plots for the wrecking of railway equipment the disabling of locomotives, the causing of wrecks, the burning of bridges and the obstruction of the mails.

SEEING THINGS IN SLEEPY HOLLOW

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., Sept. 9.—The cluster of unearthly hoofs has been stillied but the spirit of the eerie rider who chased the lanky Ichabod Crane thru Sleepy Hollow seems still to live.

Today four men came to North Tarrytown hospital. They were victims of an accident. Their machine, as it rolled on the bridge of the Headless Horseman made famous by Washington Irving's story swerved and toppled over on the precipice spot where the storied horseman carrying his head in his hand spurred close to the flying Ichabod.

Wall Street Sharpeners Engineered Strike-Ford

(By The Associated Press)
DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 9.—Whether the Ford Motor company will close its plants here and in other cities throught the country on September 16, had not been definitely decided tonight, according to Henry Ford, whose representatives were reported to have contracted for 4,000,000 tons of coal with a Cincinnati concern.

Mr. Ford said he knew nothing about the Cincinnati negotiations and could not say if an adequate fuel supply had been obtained. The manufacturer recently announced his industries would cease operations on September 16, owing to his inability to obtain sufficient fuel at what he deemed a fair price. Advancing steel prices also had a bearing on the decision he said at that time.

Mr. Ford said he was hopeful that the next few days would bring developments that would warrant a continuance of operations and avert a period of idleness for thousands of men employed.

"But this much I can tell you now," said the manufacturer. "This whole situation, coal and railroad has been carefully engineered by about 25 sharpers down in Wall street."

Mr. Ford renewed his charge that financial interests were lent or forcing government ownership of the roads and that the same interests "handle the union leaders." He continued:

TEMPORARY ORDER ISSUED TO UNION BY JUSTICE BAILEY

Restraints U. S. Marshal Snyder from Interfering with Meetings

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—A temporary order restraining United States Marshal Snyder from interfering with meetings of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and from doing anything in opposition to the prosecution of the railroad shopcraft strike in excess of the scores of the injunction granted by the government in Chicago was the net result today of the legal attack launched by the electrical workers organization against the Chicago writ.

Justice Bailey of the supreme court of the district of Columbia, who issued the order, refused to impose similar restraint on the United States Attorney Gordon named as co-defendant by the union, but announced that his decision in this regard was without prejudice to a renewal of the petition after next Monday when the Chicago order expires.

Hearing on the restraining order directed against Marshal Snyder was scheduled for September 15, when Justice Bailey will take up the government's motion to dismiss the petition seeking a permanent injunction order along the same lines as that covered by today's decision.

Neither the department of justice nor labor officials would comment publicly on Justice Bailey's findings but unofficially they were interpreted as constituting a virtual defeat for the union in view of the practical affirmation of the Chicago order.

Government officials today still professed themselves to be without definite information as to the progress looking to the settlement of the shopmen's strike.

PREDICT REPUBLICAN VICTORY IN MAINE

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—Confidence of electing solid Republican state and national tickets in Maine on Monday was expressed in a statement tonight by John T. Adams, chairman of the Republican committee. He added that he saw "no reason to expect a Republican vote in Maine as heavy as the Republican landslide in 1920," because of the decline of interest in "off year" elections as compared with presidential campaigns.

"Maine, altho safely Republican," said Mr. Adams, "is not overwhelmingly so. In the campaign just closing the Democrats have put up a good fight all along the line."

ASKS COINAGE OF FIFTY CENT PIECE

Washington, Sept. 9.—Coinage of a 50 cent piece in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the birth of former President Rutherford B. Hayes at Delaware, Ohio, is provided under a bill by Senator Willis, Republican, Ohio, passed today by the senate and sent to the house.

"Now that no more profiteer rakeoffs can be made out of the railroads because of the stringent federal and state regulations, they Wall street gamblers are tending to bring about a situation where the government will take over all the railroads and at a price they will name.

"The price the government is induced to pay for mountains of rails and other equipment, most of it obsolete junk, will be the last and greatest rake off this gang of bankers will reap from the manipulation and plunder of the transportation systems of the United States. It is for that reason that these Wall street snakes have engineered the present coal and railroad toup."

"It makes me sorry when I read of the royalty of these striking workmen to their unions. They are sincere—and these days, sincerity in any form should be respected, because it is so rare.

"But they are deluded. That's the great tragedy of American labor today. These simple, honest men believe they have organized for their own good by their own kind of men, but I tell you they have been organized by the agents of Wall street and nobodry else. Wall street cannot handle hundreds of thousands of separate different thinking individuals, so it went out and had them organized into unions. Wall street can handle the unions because it can and does handle the union leaders."

DIVORCE CANON OF EPISCOPAL CHURCH MAY BE TIGHTENED

Could Only Marry Those Divorced on Infidelity Charge

(By The Associated Press)
PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 9.—The divorce canon of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States would be tightened, forbidding all members to marry persons divorced for any cause except infidelity of the offending party in a divorce case if a resolution introduced in the house of bishops today by Bishop Charles H. Brent, of Western New York, is adopted by the general convention of the church now in session here. Bishop Brent's proposed amendment tightens the divorce canon which now forbids clergy members of the church from marrying divorced persons and only by implication forbids the members re-marrying.

In the house of deputies reports of commissions were presented favoring divine healing in the church and favoring the seahlf of women delegates in the house of deputies. The deputies took definite action in the matter of prayer book revision in rejecting an effort to postpone further consideration of revision for at least three years.

Following this the house finally acted upon one prayer book revision, the elimination of a repetition phase in the Gloria in Excelsis. The house of bishops finally adopted the new alternative prayer for the president which had been finally adopted by the house and it now becomes part of the prayer book.

Prayers were offered in the house of bishops for the recovery of Mrs. Harding and messages of sympathy were ordered sent by both houses of the convention to the president.

DEMOCRATS ARE HOPEFUL IN MAINE

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The Democrats of Maine are "not on hopeful but supremely confident that the outcome in next Monday's election will offer further convincing evidence of the general revolt against Republican national and local leaderships." Cordell Hull, chairman of the Democratic national committee declared in a statement tonight. He said the Democrats had "abiding faith in the justice of their cause and in the wisdom and discriminating judgment of the people of Maine in the fact of the business, economic and social demoralization existing everywhere as a result of Republican misrule in the states and in the nation."

SAYS DRY LAWS CAN'T BE ENFORCED

St. Louis, Sept. 9.—Ernest F. Oakley, prosecuting attorney of St. Louis, in a statement today said the dry laws could not be enforced and consequently should be modified or repealed. He added that inability to collect sufficient evidence made it virtually impossible to enforce the prohibition laws.

EXPECT FIGHT ON ATTEMPT TO GET BAIL FOR MINERS

State's Attorney Duty Says He Will Oppose Granting Bail

(By The Associated Press)
MARION, Ill., Sept. 9.—Whether the men now held in the Williamson county jail on charges of murder in connection with the Herrin massacre will be given an opportunity for release on bail will be decided when A. W. Kerr, chief counsel for the Illinois United Mine Workers returns here on Sunday.

Circuit Judge D. T. Hartwell said today that if the attorneys for the miners and the attorneys for the state will both agree upon a time for the hearing he will grant it. The grand jury has taken a recess and the hearings will be held the coming week if the attorneys are willing.

State's Attorney Duty said this morning that he would oppose the granting of bail as these indictments were all for murder and that murder is not a bailable offense. The miner's attorney probably will contend quoting recent Chicago cases as precedent, that if sufficient bond is furnished even murder cases can become bailable. A prominent miner official said that these were not cases of premeditated murder but of murder under excitement of riot.

One More Indictment.

Circuit Clerk Caplinger in checking over the indictments returned by the grand jury on Friday found that there was one additional indictment for murder, William Travelstead being indicted for the murder of John Shoemaker. He was also indicted for conspiracy and rioting. This makes a total of 35 indicted for murder who are also, with 20 additional names indicted for rioting and conspiracy, making a grand total of 55 indicted. David Babbington and Fred Cooper of Johnston City, miners' officials who were indicted for conspiracy to commit murder and riot are attending the miners convention at Peoria but upon seeing their names in the papers, wired that they would return at once and file bond. Noble Bell of Johnston City, manager of the miners' cooperative store, who refused to testify before the grand jury and then reconsidered and did testify was among those indicted for conspiracy and was the first to surrender and file bond.

V. R. Wilson also filed bond for $1,000.

It was learned today that the grand jury had a complete funeral service one morning this week. One of the preachers who participated in the funeral service for the massacre victims was a witness and became so interested in telling his story that the attorneys could not stop him so he recited the entire service including a complete reading of the nineteenth Psalm and all the verses of "Nearer My God to Thee."

BODY OF FIRE BUILDER FOUND IN ENGINE PIT

(By The Associated Press)
BLOOMINGTON, Sept. 9.—The body of Tony Butkus, fire builder at the Chicago & Alton shops here, was dredged from the pit late tonight. First knowledge of the death of Butkus came when the engineer of the travelling crane saw the body. It is believed that Butkus met his death when he stepped off on the wrong side of the engine, falling into the pit.

The coroner's jury's verdict was accidental death, but as yet no relatives have been notified as no addresses were found on the body.

Butkus, who took the job since the walkout of the men at the local shops, made application for the job under the name of Butkus, but always signed as "John Sells."

He was about 29 years old, five feet nine inches in height, and gave his address as Chicago. The body was taken to a local undertaking establishment.

COAL MINE DEATHS SHOW DECREASE IN 1922

Washington, Sept. 9.—During the first seven months of the present year 917 men were killed by accidents at coal mines in the United States compared with 1,163 during the corresponding period last year, says the federal bureau of mines. The production of coal in the first seven months of 1922 amounted to 226,202,000 tons, a decrease of approximately 19 per cent from the figures for the same period last year 279,869,00 tons.

THE CONDITION OF MRS. HARDING IS NO WORSE-LATE REPORT

Secretary Christian Supplements Official Statement with This Statement at 11 o'Clock Last Night—Those at Bedside Thought Patient Showed Improvement

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The condition of Mrs. Harding at 11 o'clock tonight was said by Secretary Christian to be about the same as when the official bulletin was issued earlier in the evening.

"The most encouraging thing," he declared, "is that Mrs. Harding is no worse."

Chairman Lasker of the shipping board was a late caller at the white house and said Dr. George T. Harding, the president's brother, had told him he was "not without hope" for the recovery of Mrs. Harding.

President Harding was still at the bedside. He had been greatly cheered, it was declared, by the visit of former President and Mrs. Wilson. They had "been most gracious" and the president was deeply appreciative of their words, it was added.

Secretary Weeks, who was among the late visitors, conferred with the president, and on leaving said he found Mr. Harding much heartened by the trend of the patient's condition since the issuance of the night bulletin. The secretary said those at Mrs. Harding's bedside thought she had shown decided improvement.

The official statement timed 7:30 o'clock, gave the patient's condition as follows:

"Temperature 102.2; respiration, 36; pulse, 112. Excretion by kidneys somewhat increased. Laboratory findings indicate less auto-intoxication. Pain in abdomen diminished. Patient has been able to take and retain some nourishment. Condition still critical."

Dr. G. T. Harding, Jr., President Harding's brother, joined the medical council Saturday morning. Dr. Charles Mayo who has been called to confer on surgical aspects of the case will arrive in Washington at 9 a. m. Sunday.

The statement was the first formal one issued since 9 o'clock this morning when Mrs. Harding was said to be as well "as could be expected."

This was supplemented late today with the informal assurance that the patient was "holding her own," in her fight against the disease. As a result a more hopeful feeling characterized those in attendance especially after the tense hours of last night.

Just before the formal bulletin was issued tonight, Secretary Christian upon leaving his office in company with Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson stated to newspaper correspondents that "all signs are still very distressing." It was then indicated that an operation would be performed only as a last resort. Admiral Grayson, who attended President Wilson during his illness had called at the white house to inquire as to Mrs. Harding's condition, as he had in the afternoon.

President Harding laid aside all but the most vital affairs of state today and went to the spacious chamber overlooking Lafayette park where the first lady of the land lay to be with her and tonight was there constantly. From time to time the physicians and nurses withdrew, leaving the two alone.

Thruout the day there was a continuous line of carriages and automobiles bringing cabinet officers and representatives of foreign governments to inquire for the latest news from the sick chamber. Former President Wilson and Mrs. Wilson came in the afternoon and left their cards. The new German ambassador, Herr Weidfeldt, and practically every department head were among the callers most of whom left flowers and notes expressing their sympathy.

It was emphasized today at the white house that both President and Mrs. Harding held every confidence in General Sawyer, who served as physician to the family for many years before the Hardings came to Washington.

MISSOURI KIWANIS TO MEET AT SPRINGFIELD

Topeka, Kan., Sept. 9.—Springfield, Mo., was selected for the 1922 annual convention of the Missouri-Kansas district of the Kiwanis Clubs at the convention today. E. L. Chase of Kansas City was re-elected president.

METHODISTS WILL LAUNCH CAMPAIGN FOR $1,250,000

Woman's College Will Receive $250,000 From the Fund

(By The Associated Press)
DECATUR, Ill., Sept. 9.—Methodists of the Illinois conference today launched at $1,250,000 campaign for educational purposes in the annual conference now in progress here. The Central Illinois conference on the north will share in raising the amount, which is $425,000 under the amount set last year by the bi-conference committee as the goal for this year.

Ministers of the conference unanimously passed the resolution calling for the campaign and the laymen's association, also adopted the program after some discussion in the last session of that body this morning.

The entire amount with the exception of $250,000 which will go to the fund for conference claimants and necessary expenses will be divided among the Methodist schools of the state. The campaign will be paid under way in May and June, 1923, to be completed by June 30. Two years given for payment of pledges in semi-annual installments.

The Illinois Wesleyan university in Bloomington, will receive $333,333 of the fund, Illinois Woman's college in Jacksonville, $250,000 and the Wesleyan Foundation at the University of Illinois a like amount.

Chadlock Boys' school will get $83,333. The remainder of the total amount, $83,334, will be used for expense of the campaign and miscellaneous items. Hedding college is not included in the list as it has closed its doors temporarily.

Resolutions favoring public control of motion pictures, demanding strict enforcement of the 18th amendment, opposing ballooning on return of light wines and beers and demanding prosecution of persons responsible for the Herrin riot were passed by the conference.

"Only the establishment of true Christian principles in the heart and life of every man in America and most distant mission land can safeguard the world against the next war," Dr. R. J. Wade, corresponding secretary of the general committee on conservation and advance told the conference tonight.

The conference will come to a close Monday with the reading of the list of appointments by Bishop Thomas Nicholson.

New York, Sept. 9.—Pepine Magro had to be lifted up and set on a desk at the federal naturalization bureau in Brooklyn today before he could sign an application for his first citizenship papers.

Washington Post: "What has become of the old-fashioned family doctor?" asked an editor. For that matter, what has become of the old fashioned family?

The government crop report indicates a falling off of 142,000,000 bushels of corn by comparison with the estimate of the month previous. No great change was noted in prices, indicating that the report must have been made in advance or else that the crop is so large that a hundred million bushels makes little difference.

It is an unusual thing for the farm papers to praise the packers. Yet that was done in the current issue of the Wallace Farmer. The editor commends the packers for the recent "ham campaign" in which people were urged to buy hams and numerous new methods of cooking were suggested. As a result ham prices did not slump to the degree that would otherwise have been true because the demand increased as the result of the advertising. The farm paper credits the packers with having used this method to stop losses from lowering markets instead of hammering down prices paid the producer.

The miners' organization bitterly assails the Illinois chamber of commerce for raising a fund of $25,000 to aid the attorney general in the prosecution of the Herrin cases. Now the miners' organization has agreed to set aside a percentage of the daily pay of the workers which will raise a fund of $250,000 a month. Certainly if the results of the investigation and trials at Herrin is to be shaped by the size of the fund raised, there is not much use in going further with the investigation.

Mr. Ford says that he has definitely determined whether he will accept the most recent offers for coal and not shut down his plants September 16 as he had formerly announced would be done. In the same statement the big manufacturer gives his opinion of the Wall street financiers whom he charges with responsibility for both coal and railroad strikes.

Mr. Ford has had a very poor opinion of Wall street since his experiences of two years ago, when the Wall street answer to his request for a big loan was not at all to his liking. He did not accept the bankers' money, and instead shipped allotments of cars and tractors to all his dealers. The big fund thus created took care of the emergency and made the Wall street help unnecessary.

THE SCHOOL ARMY.

(By N. E. A.)
The return of children to school this autumn is a far more important event than most of us realize. These children form an army, preparing to reinforce us in attacking life's problems.

Those problems are more knotty, more numerous, than when present grownups were serving their apprenticeships in the army of education.

Bigger problems require better training, more intensive study.

To children, the return to school is rather a sad affair. To grownups, it has the coloring of adventure, for schooling is the door to the future.

Somewhere among the millions of returning-school children are future presidents, future millionaires, future scientists, future productive geniuses, future failures. Most of them, sadly, will go thru life not far removed from failure. Just how far removed, depends to considerable extent on what they get out of education.

Any one who comprehends the great changes now taking place in the world realizes that the future will be an age of specialization, far more so than the present. Therefore, it is important for youths, particularly boys, to decide as early as possible what careers they are best fitted to follow. With a definite goal in sight, there will be less waste of time wandering down lanes that lead off from the main road to success. Help them find their goals.

Japan, with half our population now has only 12,260 autos. Here in America we have 10,500,000 motorcars. In all other countries combined only 2,500,000 cars.

This is a revelation about our comparative standard of living. For the auto, more than any other commodity, is an index of prosperity—that is, as Americans conceive prosperity.

Japan, comments the Wall Street Journal, is passing through the bicycle stage.

The Japanese are using 2,100,000 bicycles and about 111,000 jinrikishas—the two-wheeled hooded carts, drawn by trotting coolies, invented by an American missionary.

The bicycle in Japan is slowly crowding out the jinrikisha. Let's see, it's about 15 or 20 years since bicycles were all the rage in America. We are just that many years ahead of Japan—probably more, for with its smaller national resources it will take Japan longer to catch up with our present state of automobilism.

In a general way, Americans are from 20 years to 20 centuries ahead of other countries in conveniences, luxuries and standard of living.

Not a bad country, these United States, when you give the subject a little thought and a grain of appreciation. We are so much better off than other countries that our constant grumbling suggests maybe we have become so accustomed to the fat of the land that we expect too much.

This expecting "too much" however, is what has raised us to our present high average standard of living.

No standard of living is too high, as long as the national resources and the productivity of the individual make the standard possible. All a matter of production. We cannot eat crops that aren't grown, live in houses that

Forceful Facts Concerning the Interests of Former Soldiers, Sailors and Marines

French army maneuvers are to be held this month for the first time since 1913.

More than 7,000 young men in the United States are attending the reserve officers' training camps.

Former negro service men are being barred from membership in American Legion posts in certain sections of the United States.

Field Marshal Lord Haig of Great Britain, has 30 swords, presented to him by more than 20 towns and public bodies in England.

The former Prince Oscar, of Germany, one of the sons of Kaiser Wilhelm, has demanded a back salary as commander-in-chief of a force of soldiers for the last three months of 1918.

The latest British submarines are equipped with 12-inch guns, which can be submerged fully loaded, capable of firing torpedoes under water, and able to dive completely under the surface in 15 seconds.

After eight years a monument was recently dedicated in France to 190 French soldiers killed near Gorcy in an early battle of the world war. Among the dead were sons of Marshal Poch and former premier Viviani.

Because world war veterans, who served with forces of the United States are being debarred from entry into the country by the three per cent immigration law, a bill was recently introduced in the house of representatives in Washington to admit into the United States aliens who served in the military or naval forces of this country during the world war.

Coal Users

After 5 months shut down the miners have again started to work. Coal is higher at the mines—higher than we expected. We would not advise filling bins at present, as we look for cheaper coal.

We are offering our celebrated Diamond Chunk Coal, best coal mined in the Springfield district, at $7.50 per ton, delivered.

Franklin and Jackson county, the best Southern Illinois coal mined, at $8.50. Our terms are the same as have been for over thirty years in the coal business in Jacksonville.

COAL SHORTAGE AND RAILROAD STRIKE

Calling attention to the large increase in coal mined and transported since the coal strike was settled, the Railway Age estimates in an editorial that the railways during the remainder of the year can transport an average of about 11,000,000 tons of bituminous coal a week.

"This," says the Railway Age, "would make the country's total bituminous production of the year about 422,000,000 tons, which would be 2,000,000 tons larger than in 1921, altho it would be 115,000,000 tons less than the average annual production in the four years ended with 1920. The result of providing 11,000,000 tons a week probably would be that thruout the fall and winter the country would be without substantial surplus supplies and that local and sporadic shortages constantly would develop, but sufficient coal would be well distributed, and domestic consumers and essential industries were given priority, the country could get thru until spring without any real suffering and without serious interference with general business."

"It is most important that the responsibility for the situation should be apportioned fairly by the public to those to whom it belongs. No facts available will help the traffic more to apportion this responsibility than the following: In the week ended August 19, the last week before the termination of the coal strike had enabled work in the bituminous mines to be generally resumed, the amount of bituminous coal produced and transported was 4,609,000 tons. In the week ended September 2, the second week after the coal strike was ended, the total amount of coal produced by the mines and transported by the railways was about 9,500,000 tons, an increase of over 100 per cent."

"Since the railways in such a short time have, in spite of the shopmen's strike, proved able to make possible production of such a largely increased tonnage of coal, is there still danger of a serious coal shortage, and, if so, why?"

"There is still danger and the reason for it is to be found in the developments which have occurred in connection with the coal strike and the railway shop employees' strike. The coal strike began in April 1, almost 23 weeks ago. Before it began the mines were producing and the railways were moving an average of 10,700,000 tons of coal a week. The coal strike immediately cut this production down to less than 3,600,000 tons a week, and up to the time the railroad strike began on July 1, the coal strike had prevented 4,700,000 tons of coal from being transported to more than 5,250,000 tons a week. After the railroad strike began production declined to 4,000,000 tons a week and as it ready shown, up to the time the coal strike was ended, production was running at the rate of only about 4,600,000 tons a week. In the 20 weeks that the coal strike was in full effect the total production of coal was only approximately 90,000,000 tons, whereas, if the coal strike had not occurred it could easily have amounted to 180,000,000 to 200,000,000 tons. Therefore, the country today lacks approximately 90,000,000 tons of coal which it could have had if the coal strike had not occurred."

"It is the deficiency of production due to the coal strike which is almost entirely, if not entirely, responsible for the present and prospective shortage of coal."

"What of the future? Can the railways in spite of the shop employees' strike, transport enough coal fully to make up for the shortage that has accrued? All past experience as well as existing conditions indicate that they cannot. It is estimated that the coal mines of the country, if worked to their capacity, could produce about 19,000,000 tons of bituminous coal a week. The railways, if we may judge by past experience, cannot, when working to their capacity, transport an average of more than 12,000,000 tons a week. The railways have a large amount of equipment in bad order, and there will be for some time to come conditions which will make it impossible for them to move coal to their normal maximum capacity. While favorable weather conditions prevail they may be able to move an average of somewhat more than 11,000,000 tons a week. It is not reasonably to be expected that they will be able to do much better than this. It is impossible to have such a strike as the shop employees without having it interfere to some extent with transportation efficiency."

"Based on past experience and present conditions, the Railway Age believes that this will be the outcome. The prospects certainly do not encourage optimism, but at the same time they do not justify deep pessimism because there is a reason to believe that there will be closer co-operation and less friction between the railways, the coal operators, and the coal dealers, due to the influence exerted by the government coal distributor and the interstate commerce commission, than there have often been in the past. In the absence of such co-operation there probably would be serious trouble, and all the influence of the government and public opinion should be exerted to bring about this essential co-operation."

HEAVY PENALTIES IN LIQUOR CASE

Claude Noe To Spend Ninety Days In Jail and Pay $500 Fine—Two Others Also Entered Pleas of Guilty.

In the county court yesterday Judge Samuel assessed a fine of $500 and costs and gave a 90-day sentence to Claude Noe, who entered a plea of guilty to the charge of illicit liquor selling.

Noe is the man who operated a still on a farm near Concord. Some months ago he was arrested on a bootlegging charge, but the jury failed to convict him. The evidence against the defendant at that time was very strong, and his attitude following the jury action was one which did not win favor with the court.

Yesterday Judge Samuel told the defendant that he was taking into account the fact that th's was not the first time he had been charged with violation of the liquor laws and then gave the jail sentence and the heavy fine. Noe asked if he couldn't talk to the court privately but Judge Samuel said that any suggestions from the defendant should be made in open court. Noe had nothing further to say.

The court assessed a fine of $100 and costs against Dan Delaney, who had sub-let the field to Noe on which the distilling apparatus was kept. Judge Samuel took into account the fact that Delaney disclaimed knowledge of the uses Noe was making of the land.

A fine of $100 and costs was also assessed against Douglas Norton, who entered a plea of guilty to liquor selling. The lighter fine in this case was due to the fact that the recent raid did not result in nearly as much evidence against the defendant as against the others taken in the raids.

LOCAL PRIZE WINNER SEEKS MORE HONORS

Gordon McGloshen, Highest Scoring Child at Local Better Babies Conference, Entered at State Fair Conference—Morgan County Case Rather Unique.

The highest scoring child at the Better Babies conference held in connection with the Morgan county fair was Gordon L. McGloshen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester L. McGloshen, of this city, and he has now been entered in a similar conference at the state fair. He is a candidate for the grand elimination award, only the child scoring the highest in the respective local better babies conferences being eligible for this award.

So far as known, no other Morgan county child has been entered for examination at the state fair conference.

One thousand applications have been received for the state fair conference and this is the maximum number of children that can be examined during the fair. The entry list for this feature closed Friday.

Mention has already been made of the unusual case on record at the Morgan county conference, when two pairs of twins were entered by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Frye of Chapin. A letter from the state fair conference management indicates that no such case had been recorded there, altho there were triplets entered in the contest.

Mr. and Mrs. Frye brought their children to the local health department office Saturday and received the score cards and the check for $5, which was awarded by Dr. R. V. Brokaw personally at the second prize in the division for twins at the local conference.

New Geographies Will Show Many Changes When the New Offshoots of the Russian Empire Are Incorporated in School Books—Now Comprises Twenty Seven Nations

(By The Associated Press)
PETROGRAD.—American boys who have to learn the boundaries of the countries of the world and their capitals will have a hard time when makers of geographies incorporate the new offshoots of the Russian empire in their school books.

The realm over which Czar Nicholas ruled is now split up into 27 nations which are all federated with Moscow. A new official map issued by the Soviet government shows all these divisions of what was once European and Asiatic Russia.

Finland and Poland are not included in this map. Although they were formerly of the Russian Empire, their complete independence has been recognized. Also Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania, the new Baltic states which have just been recognized by the United States, are conceded by the Moscow government to be wholly separate. Consequently there are really 32 new nations where there was only one before Soviet rule prevailed in Russia.

The main or parent republic comprises practically all of Central and Northern European Russia and has its capital in Moscow. Many of the other governments which have sprung up are in remote sections and comprise slightly populated territory with cities of no size. Some of them are republics. Others are classed as communes, but all are autonomous.

The Ukrainian republic, with its capital at Kharkoff, embraces the best part of Southern Russia, and includes Odessa. This is the richest section of agricultural Russia and it contains the greatest deposits of iron and coal. It was highly industrialized under the Czar's government.

Practically all of Siberia west of Irkutsk is included in the Far Eastern Republic with its capital at Chita. Immediately south of this is the Mongolian republic with its head at Urga. This was really not Russian territory, but belonged to China before the war. China still insists that it owns Mongolia and denies the existence of the new Soviet republic which Russia has created. Mongolia had limited autonomy before the war, but Russia dominated it and claimed it as its sphere of influence, steadily refusing to allow American railway constructors to take concessions which would touch this territory.

The Karelian Workmen's Commune, with its capital at Petrozavodsk, lies north of Petrograd, adjoining Finland, and has recently been the scene of considerable fighting between Finns and Soviet troops. It is a sterile and worthless country, but because of its strategic position commanding the railway to Kola, Russia's only ice-free coast on the north, is of great importance. Minsk is the capital of the White Russian Republic, which is of great importance because it adjoins Poland the new Baltic state of Lithuania. The Crimean republic, with its capital at Simferopol, includes Sevastopol.

LEGION CONVENTION SHOULD RENEW FAITH

Review of Thousands of Legionnaires Will Have Potent Effect on Citizens.

Rock Island, Ill., Sept. 9.—(By The Associated Press.)—A potent force for Americanization will be the state convention of the American Legion and the great parade of uniformed Legionnaires here September 25-28, according to William G. Setliffe, department adjutant.

"In these days of economic unrest," Mr. Setliffe said, "nothing could have so quieting an effect and give such reassuring faith in America, as the Rock Island review of thousands of marching Legionnaires, clad in uniforms, in which they returned home from a service, in which many lost the sting of battle, facing death, and in which all gave unselfishly, of all that their country asked."

"This convention of the American Legion," the department adjutant added, "will be a most potent force for Americanization. A reminder to the thoughtless in the state, that the 'salt of the earth' is ready now as in April, 1917, to put 'America first.'"

He recalled the inspiration of the 6,000 uniformed marchers at last year's convention at Decatur. As Rock Island is preparing for an attendance of 15,000 it is hoped by Mr. Setliffe that a greater number will be in the uniformed line than at Decatur.

The parade will be held at 1:30 o'clock Monday, the first day of the convention. At its head will be National Commander Hanford MacNider, and Department Commander Setliffe, who will march part way and then drop out at the reviewing stand, where they will watch the procession with the group which will include United States Senators McCormick and McKinley, Governor Len Small, General George Bell, Jr., and General Milton Foreman.

The line will include combined bands and drum and bugle corps of various posts.

HUNGRY FLOCK TO AMERICAN FOOD

MEXICO CITY.—(By The Associated Press.)—When an enterprising American woman in Mexico City recently opened a "Hole In The Wall," catering to the exclusive tastes of homesick "staters" who tire of chiles and frijoles and yearn for hotcakes and doughnuts, she started something.

An epidemic of shops, restaurants and the like reminiscent of "back home" has broken out and the Americans are showing their loyalty by patronizing them liberally.

A stroll down Madera avenue discloses a white capped, white aproned gentleman in an expansive window performing well known contortions with griddle cakes. In the next block one may read this sign: "Sinners and coffee, 25 cents." One of the most popular places in the city has been "Number 14," a tiny establishment on a side street where friendly invitations are made to have a "Tom and Jerry," or a "Genuine Rye Highball," creations that were never conceived in Mexico, but were born of pre-war genius in the United States.

It remained, however, for several San Franciscans to reap a rich harvest from homesick Americans. They started a canteen and they christened it "Dinty Moore's," and to the eternal glory of American citizenship may it be said that they have enlarged the place three times in two weeks in order to accommodate the crowds that clamor for corned beef and cabbage, virtually the only item on the bill of fare.

D. H. Duke and wife came to town from Pisgah yesterday. They are the happy parents of twins, Lena and Levis, about three years old.

GIRL OF 19 MAKES SUCCESS OF "TRIAL MOTHERHOOD"

MARY CAMICIA, 19, SURROUNDED BY THE FAMILY WITH WHICH SHE'S BEEN SUCCESSFUL AS A "TRIAL MOTHER"

San Francisco, Calif.—Those gloomy pessimists who see modern girlhood slipping into the follies of flapperism may well ponder the case of Mary Camicia.

At 19 the courts made her "legal mother" of a brood of five brothers and sisters. Because of her youth the judges gave her a year for "trial motherhood." With an income of $51 a month from the mother's estate she set out.

That year is up and this is what Mary has just reported to the judge: An income of $50 a week in addition to the estate money.

A household that operates with efficiency—expert smoothness. Five healthy, well-fed, well-clad youngsters, far better equipped to face future life than nine out of ten of their comrades.

How did she do it? "I set right out to organize the home, as though it had been a business," explains Mary.

Liberty Bond Outlook

Wellesley Hills, Mass., Sept. 9.—A great many of our readers have Liberty Bonds and wonder if it is not time to sell them. When they went down into the 80's people were frightened and threw them over. Now that they have come up to par, and better, the same people are buying more. This is a queer little world. In view of the situation Roger W. Babson issues the following state, ment:

"It is true that the time to buy bonds is when no one else wants them and the time to sell bonds is when everyone wants them. Hence, I strongly recommended the purchase of Liberties two years ago when they were selling in the 80's. I am not quite convinced, however, that the time has yet come for selling them, even tho they are acting rather queerly at the moment."

"People are worrying as to what effect the railroad and coal strikes, and other industrial disturbances will have on the price of Liberty bonds, America's greatest and most popular investment. It would be only natural that these disturbances should depress the price of Liberties a little; but such affect would be only temporary. Money is destined to be even cheaper than it is today, and interest rates will continue fairly low for some time to come. This means that banks will again come into the market to buy Liberty Bonds. These purchases by the banks, together with the purchases of the Government, must keep the price up and quite likely force still higher prices. Therefore, I definitely advise readers to hold their Liberty bonds believing that they will ultimately sell for higher prices. Be prepared, however, for a possible temporary decline in order not to be panic-stricken if such a temporary decline takes place."

"The Fourth 4 1/2's are today selling at little over par and are callable at par in 1933. Readers can be pretty certain that the bonds will be called at that time. This means that on the 15th of October in the year 1933 these bonds will sell at par. Not one per cent above or one per cent below. With a constant interest rate between now and then the bonds should be at their highest point about 1927 or half way between now and their callable date. The same rule applies to all of the different issues with their various maturities. Of course, it is very likely that the government will provide some general refunding scheme before all of the various issues of Liberty bonds are due or even callable. But if so, such a plan will be favorable to the holders. I certainly advise readers to hold their Liberty bonds until such a refunding announcement is made. After selling Liberty Bonds be careful in what you invest, A

CAN CONTROL PEACH BORER

Easily and Cheaply Controlled by W. P. Flint of the University of Illinois Says.

Urbana, Ill.—(By The Associated Press.)—The peach borer is in most localities, the worst insect enemy of the peach tree.

W. P. Flint, at the University of Illinois, Judging from recent experimental work, it can be easily and cheaply controlled by the use of paradichlorobenzene, he announced recently.

"It would be difficult to find a five year old peach tree anywhere in Illinois that has not been injured by the peach borer," he said.

"Until 1919 the only effective means known for controlling the borers was to cut or dig them out. This is best done after removing the earth from around the base of the tree, when the borers may be cut with a sharp knife, following the grain of the bark."

"A more effective and cheaper means of destroying this insect has been discovered thru experiments of the Federal Bureau of Entomology. This work was later taken up in Illinois and in other states. The method consists in applying a small quantity of paradichlorobenzene (P. D. B.) crystals about the base of infested peach trees, and covering them, with earth. These crystals, volatile and the gas from them, which is heavier than air, penetrates to the borers and kills them."

"During 1920 and 1921 the Illinois Natural History Survey conducted a number of experiments in the use of this material. This work was carried on at Urbana, Farina, Carbondale, Anna, Cobden and New Burnside. The paradichlorobenzene was applied to trees of all ages from those in the nursery row to those five years old. Applications were made to blocks of trees at intervals during the spring and fall. A detailed account of these experiments is being published in the report of the Illinois Horticultural Society for 1921."

BELIEVE ANTI-VICE EXPERIMENT FAILURE

SHANGHAI.—Shanghai's experiment, begun some two years ago, to eliminate commercialized Settlement, has been occasioning widespread discussion in Shanghai and elsewhere by reason of recent official reports that seem to indicate the belief that the plan adopted will not work.

The scheme was proposed by a vice commission. When it was put into operation the 800-odd establishments of the International Settlement were licensed and the purpose has been to cancel one-fifth of the total number of licenses each year for a period of five years—with the end that places of the kind would be wholly eliminated at the end of the five-year period.

After the scheme has been in operation two years its wisdom seemingly is questioned in the course of a report lately issued report says the evil and attendant evils "have in one way decreased but have merely spread over a much wider area with consequent impossibility of any effective police control."

This elicited a swift response from local "moral welfare" forces. The council was asked if its statement meant that the places closed open again in new quarters in the Settlement and operate unchecked and if the police feel themselves unable to cope with the situation.

Replying to these questions the Municipal Council said that places officially closed, remain closed, but that nevertheless former occupants having no other means of making a living continue their former lives in private houses where they are in no sense subject to police control.

EVOLUTION OF THE PULLMAN SLEEPING CAR TICKET TOLD

Officials of the Pullman Company Tell How it Evolved from Red and Yellow Card—Early Cards Had Admonition Not to Go to Bed With Boots on—Many Forms Now

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—The modern Pullman ticket, bearing concise detailed information, and issued in about 150 different forms, evolved gradually from red and yellow cards bearing a single number, according to officials of the Pullman company.

One phase of the evolution was a ticket illustrated with a simple line drawing boldly labeled "sleeping car" and bearing the simple description "single berth" or "double berth" and the price. Another variant bore a lengthy admonition to passengers not to go to bed with their boots on. A third bore ten inches of finely printed conditions. A collection of old tickets has been made by H. P. Clements, general passenger agent of the company.

The color of the original tickets indicated whether the holder was entitled to an upper or a lower berth. The passenger was given a berth corresponding to the number and color of his ticket. "As there was only one car and one rate," says Pullman News, house organ of the Pullman company, "there was no occasion for complication or complaint."

Need for more detailed information arose with the increase in the number of cars operated. Pullman tickets are now for sale, according to figures of the company, in some 3,000 ticket offices in North America. The forms vary from the small three fold local tickets, consisting of agent's stub, contract portions and passenger's check, to the longer interline coupon forms for an extended journey, with transfers on the way. Nearly all forms bear consecutive number, form number and number of the office where the ticket is sold.

One of the tickets in Mr. Clements' collection which was issued after detailed information was adopted bears a zig zag stripe. This meant that the reservation was on a "Zig Zag" car, in which a winding passage separated ten compartments.

Another peculiar condition left its record on a ticket which bore one or two stripes. It was used on a road where two trains left a terminal after midnight; one stripe indicated that the passenger was to take the first train, two stripes the second train.

Mrs. Lou Moody arrived in town yesterday from Chapin.

Woman's College Notes

Unusual activity has marked the vacation time at Illinois Woman's college this year. In addition to the regular amount of cleaning, papering and painting that is done each year, the college is purchasing considerable new equipment in the departments of chemistry, biology and home economics. The home economics, the additional equipment will enable the department to meet all the requirements of the Smith-Hughes act.

The college is offering this year a new course in the department of home economics as suggested in the preceding paragraph. In connection with Miss Hess, who is acting director for the board of vocational education for the State of Illinois together with the director of the department of economics, a course has been worked out that will meet the requirements of the Smith-Hughes act which provides that where teachers are trained in schools meeting these requirements, they are eligible then to accept positions where the state and federal government pays half of the salary. The only schools now offering such courses are some of the normal schools and the State university. This makes it possible for any young women who desire to prepare for the best positions to get this training without leaving Jacksonville.

The college library is greatly in need of some books, the present needs being a new set of international encyclopaedia, some new books on poetry and drama and economics and sociology. Anyone interested may get further information from Miss Eleanor Thompson, the librarian.

Miss Velma Bain who graduated in the class of '22 was a visitor at the college Saturday. She is now teaching in the Franklin high school and is greatly enjoying her work in this splendid community.

Miss Helen Paschall has accepted a call from the Presbyterian home mission board to work among the mountain whites in Southeastern Kentucky. The last fourteen miles of this trip must be made on horseback so this gives one a good idea of the rugged country into which she is going. Miss Paschall left last Wednesday.

President Barker has returned from the Illinois conference which has been meeting at Decatur and reports a very interesting time. He expects to attend the sessions of the Central conference which will be held in Rock Island-Moline beginning this week.

Registration days will be September 18 and 19 and up to 9 o'clock September 20. It is urged that all town students register on Monday. Registration will begin at 10 o'clock. This will enable everyone to get the courses of study arranged before the trains bring in the students from outside the city.

Much interest is being shown in the department of physical education. Three normal school graduates of physical education have been secured to assist Miss Boyd in the regular gymnasium classes. This will give Miss Boyd, the director, sufficient time to take care of the classes in theory and the normal methods course, and the new eurythmic classes in music.

Miss Margaret Hamilton will have charge of the classes in swimming. Private work will be given whenever it is called for. She will probably have one or two assistants as the work in this department is increasing very rapidly. It is planned to give every opportunity to the women and girls in the city to take up these special courses. A more complete statement will appear in a few days giving the names of the assistants in these departments together with a statement of their training.

Miss Marian DePew has just been appointed to a position in the Williamsville township high school and begins her work Monday the 11th. She will have classes in Biology with some work in history and some outside work in Public speaking.

MURDER MYSTERY SPLITS COUNTY

MRS. IVAY GIBERSON, HER FATHER, JOE RICHMOND, (ABOVE) AND HAROLD GA NUN.

By BOB DORMAN.

LAKEHURST, N. J.—This little village is the storm center of Orange county, a county divided into two hostile camps.

The absorbing topic of conversation everywhere is: "Who killed William Giberson?"

The dissension has arisen over the holding by authorities of Mrs. Ivay Giberson to await results of investigation into the slaying of her husband, found shot to death in his bed.

The two conflicting camps are the friends of Mrs. Giberson, indignant over her detention, and those who are against her.

The woman about whom the conflict rages is short, stout, with blond hair and blue eyes, weighing around 180 pounds.

Active in Reform Moves.

She has taken an active part in work for the betterment morally and politically of her community. She has made herself conspicuous by opposition to illicit liquor traffic here.

She is a member of the Methodist church. She has been active in Red Cross work. Since women obtained the vote she has been a consistent worker for better and cleaner politics.

She and her husband had attained a degree of prosperity by operation of a taxicab service.

They had settled down to enjoy the fruits of their business.

Mrs. Giberson, under the strain of continual questioning, sticks to her story that her husband was slain by robbers who stole $700 and bound and gagged her.

But authorities have advanced a theory that Giberson was slain by his wife. This Mrs. Giberson persistently denies.

Other Principals.

Other actors in the drama are: HAROLD GA NUN, who police say was the author of some letters to Mrs. Giberson. Ga Nun has been absolved of blame in the killing but has come to Lakehurst voluntarily to aid in clearing up the mystery.

JOE RICHMOND, father of Mrs. Giberson and most active in her defense. He declares she is being "framed" because of her activity against bootlegging.

Killing Cold Blooded.

The killing was a particularly cold blooded one. The muzzle of the death weapon was held within six inches of the back of Giberson's neck.

Railway detectives, aroused by screams, rushed to the home to find Mrs. Giberson bound hand and foot and gagged with a napkin. In the next room lay the body of her husband in a pool of blood.

Seven hundred dollars in cash was missing.

COLLEGE OF MUSIC NOTES

The College of Music announces a new and interesting feature to be added to its general correlated class work, a course in Eurythmics under the direction of Miss Nellie Boyd, the college director of Physical Education.

The fundamental aid of this course is to give the child a means of expression of his individuality in rhythm and to encourage an equal and harmonious development of mind and body. Through the actual experience of rhythm, by combining motion, music and a spirit of play, the child unconsciously grasps rhythmic fundamentals and his mind becomes more receptive to music in its more complicated forms.

Many children, owing to insufficient means are denied the privilege of music study, the college has this season made new arrangement by which pupils may study with the most advanced music students in the academy department at a very low rate.

The College of Music will open a branch studio at 513 West State street. This is to take care of the students of the High School and Junior High School and to relieve the congestion in Music Hall after school hours. Director Pearson will be glad to arrange for lessons in this studio for any pupils who may find it more conveniently located.

Mrs. Marguerite Palmer Forrest, who has been spending the summer in Rhode Island, is expected to return to Jacksonville next week. Also Madam Elina Toft-Colard, who has been teaching in New York City during the summer, will reach Jacksonville the latter part of the week. Those desiring appointments with either teacher may phone the college office.

The College of Music has been unable to supply the demand for Supervisors of Public School music. Last year's class also placed in the following positions—Mrs. Grace Terhune, Supervisor of Music, Lincoln, Illinois; Miss Audrey Jordan, Supervisor of Music, Vienna, Illinois; Miss Marguerite Sturgeon, Supervisor of Music, Macomb, Illinois; Miss Helen Brongher, Supervisor of Music, Arthur, Illinois. Three members of the class completing their course in June, 1923 have already been engaged a year in advance.

HE HEARD LINCOLN IN 1858.

John Dodsworth of Lynville was a city caller yesterday and said the item in Old Jacksonville's article regarding Abraham Lincoln brought to mind and experience he had when the great man visited this city in 1858 and made a speech in the old court house on the southwest corner of the square.

Mr. Dodsworth especially recalls the unusual length of the speaker's arms and the manner in which he wielded them and made a very forcible address.

GOOD ALFALFA YIELD.

Spencer Carpenter, residing north of the city has an acre and a quarter of alfalfa from which he has already cut three crops aggregating about four tons and he has another cutting nearly ready for the mower. For this dry season that is a good record.

Lone Woman, 75, Battles For Millions

MRS. GEORGE WELLINGTON ("MA") STREETER

BY ROY GIBBONS

Chicago, Aug. 11.—Taking up a fight her husband waged for half a century before death removed him from the battle line, a 75-year-old woman is battling for millions of dollars in property adjoining Chicago's "gold coast."

Ranged against the lone woman are some of Chicago's richest landowners and the courts of Chicago and of Illinois, backed by city police and state troops.

But the aged woman is confident of victory.

She is "Ma" Streeter, widow of Captain John Wellington Streeter, Civil war fighter and Lake Michigan navigator.

Streeter, for 50 years before his death last year, occupied the most valuable strip of Lake Michigan's shore line, despite efforts of courts and police to dislodge him.

Storm Sends Him Ashore.
Just after the close of the Civil War, Streeter's vessel was driven ashore off the Chicago "gold coast." The ship lodged on a sand bar and couldn't be budged.

The location was pleasant, not far off shore and yet out at sea. So the adventurous captain decided to remain there.

He began filling in the inlet to land. The wind and the shifting sands helped him. There soon were about 20 acres of this new "made" land.

Then the famous fight began. Streeter claimed the "made" property as his. He called it the "District of Lake Michigan." He said he owed allegiance only to the federal government. The state of Illinois or the city of Chicago had no jurisdiction over him, he declared.

Abutting property owners laid siege to the land. They claimed it was theirs. But they couldn't eject the captain. He built a house on wheels and kept moving about on the little domain.

Loses His Fight.

It was a long drawn fight but a losing one for the Streeters. They gradually lost possession of the land. Valuable apartment houses were erected within the boundaries of the "district."

The captain died last year. But he pledged his wife to carry on for him.

That's just what she's doing. Quarters on her little yacht "Vamoose," this keen-eyed, white-haired woman, stands guard over the "district." She keeps a close tab on the box office on the Municipal Pier where the Pageant of Progress is being held.

She believes that the revenue taken in should go to her by right of ownership.

"They robbed us of our land and millions that we took out of the water," she says, "and I'm going to have justice."

In the meantime, the old woman's fortune has reached so low an ebb that she has to sell "hot dogs" to keep herself financed.

But she won't give up the fight.

Driving the New Series Paige 6-66 is an almost effortless operation. The woman who drives can handle this long 131 inch wheelbase with astonishing ease and safety.

There is not the slightest necessity for tugging at the wheel or struggling with gears. The special Timken axle and the new clutch have accomplished marvels for steering and gear changing. Indeed, both have become instinctive operations.

And, so far as control is concerned, the word takes on a new meaning after that mighty 70 horsepower reservoir has been tapped. It means just one thing—immediate and absolute responsiveness to the driver's will.

Surely these are the prime elements that you expect in a really fine motor car. Until recently they cost from four to seven thousand dollars. Now, in the Master of the Highway, they are yours—in generous abundance—for $2195.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE NOTES

The Dean's office has been a busy place during the past week. Many new students have been visiting the office, completing preliminary arrangements for their entrance into college. There is every indication that there will be another increase in registration at "Old Illinois" this fall. Registration days will be on Monday and Tuesday, September 18 and 19.

It is hoped that the Biological Laboratory on the second floor of Sturtevant will be completed by the time of registration. It probably will take somewhat longer to complete the large scientific lecture room on the east side of the second story.

Mr. Arnold Lovejoy the new instructor in voice on the Conservatory faculty has arrived in Jacksonville and will be glad to confer with any students who may wish to study with him during the coming year. Appointments to see Mr. Lovejoy may be made at the Conservatory office at Academy Hall. Indications are that there will be a large registration in the Conservatory this year and students who wish to reserve time with the different instructors are advised to make early reservation. The registration days for the Conservatory will be on September 18 and 19.

Miss Florence Schweke has been appointed as instructor in Organ, Piano, and Public School music on the Conservatory faculty. She will take over the work heretofore done by Mrs. Bullard and Miss Ainslee Moore. Mrs. Bullard's resignation was announced at commencement time, and Miss Moore has more recently decided to accept a position at Baker University, Kansas. Miss Schweke is a graduate of Milwaukee-Downer College, Wisconsin, where she has studied both in the Literary and Conservatory department. She has studied for one year with Albert Ross Parker and for two years has been an instructor on the Conservatory faculty of Crescent College at Eureka Springs, Arkansas. She comes to the faculty of the Conservatory with high recommendations.

Miss Frances Strawn, who has been studying in the Library School at the University of Illinois during the past summer will hold a position as assistant in the Illinois College Library during the coming year.

Charles M. Capps '22 has been at work recently engrossing the names of the subscribers to the New Endowment Fund in the permanent record book which will be deposited in the College Library.

The College trustees are expecting to ask for the first payment from the Rockefeller Board on their subscription to the College early in October. Since the Rockefeller Board will pay cash on its subscription in proportion as cash is paid on the other subscriptions to the Endowment Fund, it is important that friends and alumni should pay the installments on subscriptions as promptly as possible when due.

Word has been received that Homer Bale '17 will teach in the Kentucky Military Institute, Lyndon, Kentucky during the coming year.

Mrs. Jeannette L. Ogden, head of Academy Hall, returned to the city during the past week. Mrs. Ogden spent the summer traveling in the West.

As usual at this time of the year, many young men and women who are expecting to enter Illinois College are looking for opportunities to help pay their way. Residents of the city who are interested in employing student labor are requested to call the College office.

Dr. Marion Blake was in the city recently. Dr. Blake was instructor in Latin here during the past year. She has a very fine position as assistant professor in Converse College, South Carolina for the present year.

Suzanne Mayer '20 returned to Academy Hall during the past week. Miss Mayer spent the summer at a girl's camp on Lake Arbutus, Michigan. She will continue her work at Illinois College as instructor in French, during the coming year.

George Proudfoot, who has been studying under Professor Kritch during the summer, has been appointed Director of Music at the State Normal College, at Natchitoches, Louisiana.

All the students of the Conservatory who received certificates in Public School Music last spring have been placed in excellent positions for the coming year—of the number, Blanche Tripp goes to Carbondale, Josephine Conboy to Mason City, Anna Frances Bradley to Franklin Grove, and Mildred Fredlen to Mt. Sterling. This is sufficient evidence of the worth of the Public School Music Department from the practical standpoint.

A new department of instruction will be added to the Conservatory this coming year—instruction on band instruments. This work will be in charge of J. Bart Johnson. Students who register for work will have an opportunity to play in the College Band. It is expected that two bands will be organized, one the regular College Varsity Band, and the other for beginners.

FIND IT IN BOOKS

Manners, J. Hartley, "The Harp of Life"—a play in three acts. This play is a study in the quality of love of two women. The author has found somewhere the secret of arousing the emotion, the secret of casting his spell on his audiences before they are well aware of his power, so that the incidents he chooses to symbolize life are merely heightened in their pathos and comedy by the footlights between. In this latest play, "The Harp of Life," he chose a poignant theme—the love of two women for a nineteen year old boy. His mother and a courtesan, and their complete self sacrifice that he may go on unbroken and unsmirched. Mr. Manners has made a wise study of adolescence, but he has done something more difficult as well; he has really modernized the old fashioned mother. This play will be enjoyed by all students of the drama. Get it at the public library.

Ervin, St. John G., "The Ship"—Mr. Ervin has picture in drama of a compelling power, the story of John Thurlow's passion for the ships he builds, of his son's determination to break loose from shipbuilding and all our machine driven civilization and go back to the land, and the effect of this decision on his own and his father's life. This is a powerful drama and all the characters live before us in a most natural manner. Get it at the public library.

Bennett, Arnold, "The Love Match"—A comedy in five scenes. Mr. Bennett takes up the study of marriage as his theme in this last play of his and he implies that above all things marriage requires a genius for excellent repartee. Marriage is like a game of poker, and a bargain—the best bluffer wins. This is a screaming comedy that will be enjoyed by all readers. Get it at the public library.

Stirling, A. M. W., "William De Morgan and His Wife." The life of William De Morgan, artist, potter and novelist, will appeal to a very wide circle in England and America as well. The curious and romantic story of his career presents certain features which are unique in the history of art and literature. The man who first made his fame as an author at the age of sixty-seven—an age at which Balzac, Dickens, Fielding and Zola had long been dead—his left behind him a reputation which a more intimate knowledge of his character will greatly enhance. His correspondence quoted in this volume is full of the witty wise sayings, the quaint philosophy, the whimsical humor, and the shrewd insight into human nature for which he was noted, so that it forms a human document of rare interest. De Morgan was a many sided genius, a ceramic artist, scientist and inventor and novelist. His wife was an equally interesting person. Her rich imagination was shown in her fine achievements as an artist. Perhaps since the Brownings there has been no other instance of two people so rarely gifted, and so entirely in harmony in their genius, each acting and reacting on the life work of the other. They were two of the rarest spirits of the age. This is a fascinating book. Get it at the public library.

Averages Say Browns Outclass Yankees In Nearly Every Respect

Have Made More Home Runs and Stolen More Bases—Are Only Excelled in Sacrifice Hitting—George Sisler is Main Cog—Hornby Increases Average in National

CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—With the Yankees and Browns neck and neck in the home stretch of the American league pennant race today, a dive into the batting averages of the two contenders reveals the startling fact that the St. Louis batters have connected with 154 more hits than their Yankee rivals; scored ninety-nine more runs, stolen eighty-three more bases, and have been excelled only in sacrifice hitting.

The figures show the Browns have connected with 1471 hits, as against 1317 for the Yankees, and have scored 765 runs, as compared with 666 for New York. In home run hitting, the Browns, with Ken Williams in the lead, have belted out eighty-seven, while the Yankees, with their mighty Ruth, are trailing with eighty-three.

In base stealing, the Browns excel nearly two to one—stealing 117 bases as compared with 52 for the Yanks. The Browns also have proved the better club in getting bases on balls, having a total of 407, with 324 for the New Yorkers.

George Sisler, first base star, is not alone in hitting drive in the home stretch of the season. He is the fifth in the list of league leaders with an average of .339, while Williams, who cracked out his thirty-first homer of the season, is batting .326. Hank Seaver, who has been doing the burden of the catching for the Browns, is batting .319, while McManus, Jacobson and Pat Collins pinch hitter and utility catcher, all are above the .300 mark.

The batting of Sisler, the last week enabled him to boost his average from .412 to .421, which makes it an almost certainty that he will finish the season well above the .400 mark. In his last eight games, Sisler connected with nineteen hits, five of which were doubles and one a triple.

On the paths, Sisler romped across the plate twelve times, which gave him the lead as the best run getter. Sisler has registered 120 times, while Blue of Detroit has counted 117. The St. Louis favorite is putting every ounce of his energy into the game while the clubs enter the home stretch. He never misses an opportunity to stretch a hit or steal a base. He stole five during the week and is far ahead of his rival, Ken Williams, for the base stealing honors with forty-seven. Williams has stolen thirty-three.

Babe Ruth, following his third suspension of the season, is having a time to overtake his rivals in home run hitting. He celebrated his return by cracking out his twenty-ninth four bagger, but he still is trailing Tillie Walker of Philadelphia who has thirty-three and Williams of St. Louis who is leading with thirty-five. The averages included games of Wednesday.

Other leading batters for ninety-five or more games: Cobb, Detroit, .336; Speaker, Cleveland, .325; Hallock, Detroit, .357; Tobin, St. Louis, .339; Galloway, Philadelphia, .335; Schang, New York, .333; Ed Miller, Philadelphia, .332; Pipp, New York, .327; J. Harris, Boston, .327; Williams, St. Louis, .326.

National League.
Lawrence "Hack" Miller, the former San Francisco slugger, is giving the National league a surprise with his great stick work, and is doing his bit in keeping the Chicago Cubs among the contenders for the pennant. Miller is in third place among the leaders with an average of .356 according to figures which include games of Wednesday. He has batted 142 hits in 101 games, his hits include twenty-seven doubles, two triples and eleven homers.

Rogers Hornby enjoyed a profitable week, increasing his average from .389 to .391 for the leadership. He smashed out fourteen hits in his last eight games, giving him a total of 204. Besides his thirty-four home runs, Hornby has made thirty-five doubles and eleven triples.

Max Carey, whose speed has shown no falling off, has stolen thirty-nine bases and is the leading scorer, having counted 118 tallies for the Pirates.

Other leading batters in nine-five or more games: Tierney, Pittsburgh, .376; L. Miller, Chicago, .356; O. Grimes, Chicago, .354; Bigbee, Pittsburgh, .351; Hollocher, Chicago, .350; Daubert, Cincinnati, .342.

American Association.
Altho out of the game for a week, Glenn Myatt, star catcher with Milwaukee, remains on top of the heap in the race for the batting championship of the American Association with an average of .376, ten points ahead of Jay Kirke of Louisville, his closest rival. Wilbur Good of Kansas City, is third with .363. The averages include games of Wednesday.

Bunny Brief of Kansas City by connecting with five homers in his last eight games, is setting such a stiff pace that he virtually is assured of the home run hitting honors for the season. He has whaled out thirty-three.

WHITIE SOX LOSE GAME IN TENTH

Johnson's Wild Throw Allows Evans to Score When He Attempted to Complete Double Play.

CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—Tris Speaker, pinch hitting for Edwards in the ninth delivered the blow which with a wild throw by Johnson enabled Cleveland to beat Chicago 3 to 2. With men on first and third and one out Speaker grounded to Collins, whose throw to Johnson forced L. Sewell. Johnson's throw to first was wild and Evans who was on third scored and Speaker went to second. McClellan's error paved the way for the second Cleveland run and Wood's homer accounted for the first run.

Chicago's runs were the result of bases on balls and timely hitting. Inability to hit Edwards in the pinches after the third inning prevented the Sox from scoring. The score:

Kilbane Is In Fine Form for Dundee

Champ, Hard as Iron, Needs Only Polish to Fight

By Ray Grove
Cleveland, O., Sept. 9.—Two hours after Johnny Kilbane had signed to meet Johnny Dundee for the "Who's Who" in the featherweight world, at Boyle's Thirty Acres, on Sept. 29, he was busy putting up a ring outside his gymnasium.

"I am ready for anybody with in three weeks' notice," says Johnny. "All I need is some fast stuff for eye exercise and judging of distance."

But that's only half of it.

Out here on the shores of Lake Erie, seven miles west of Lorain, Ohio, the gray-haired champion has been working 65 acres of beach. To see him handle the pick, shovel, ax, saw and grub hoe

Johnny Kilbane, down on the farm, as he looked when he accepted Dundee's challenge. Left and right show Johnny at the work he has been doing all summer.

you'd think the fight game was as foreign to him as bell-bottom pants are to an Eskimo.

Hard as Concrete
He's as hard as the concrete filtration plant he and his stable mates have built.

"There's a lot to do on a farm of this size," said John. "We had to clear all this land of the trees. Dig every post hole around the place. Build that pier out of the lumber we cut down. Plow. Build that house, gymnasium, kitchen—well look for yourself."

"If that's not the stuff that'll make a fellow hard you can have all the tea in China."

To top off the manual labor of the farm, Kilbane has tennis, hand ball, volley ball courts, a baseball diamond and gymnasium equipped for every muscle. All this he built himself.

And he hauls down the flag for the day with four rounds of fast boxing with his maulers, Alex Hart, Al Zeimer, O'Malley and others. He will import Dicky Condon, a fast boy from Altona for lightning stuff.

Hasn't Slightest Fear
"I have never turned my back on any fighter. The championship is mine, and I have lived right to keep it. I haven't the slightest fear of Dundee. I have fought him twice, once in New York for ten rounds, winning a newspaper decision, and once in Vernon, Cal., for a twenty-round draw."

"This will be a ten-round no-decision bout and Dundee will have to knock me out to win the title. That means he will have to work hard for a k.o. and that's the stuff I like. It's the rush guy who gets the sleeper."

"The fans and commissions have been yelling about my title for some time, and all I have to do is show them that I am still the champion."

BROWNS FIND TIGER PITCHERS FOR 20 HITS

Vangilder Holds Detroit to Five Hits and St. Louis Wins 16 to 0—Sisler Hits Safely in Thirty-Eighth Consecutive Game.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 9.—Elam Vangilder was given excellent support and St. Louis won from Detroit 16 to 0. The Browns found three Detroit pitchers for 20 hits including one homer, five triples and three doubles. Kenneth Williams registered his 37th circuit drive in the second inning by hitting into the right field stands. Sisler was on base. It was Williams fifth homer in five consecutive games. Sisler got three hits out of five visits to the plate making 38 consecutive games in which he has hit safely. This is only two under the modern major league record.

LITHUANIANS TO PLAY INDEES TODAY

Springfield Aggregation Will Make First Appearance at South Side Park—Fryman to Pitch for Indies.

The Knights of Lithuania baseball team will play the Indies at South Side Park this afternoon. The Knights are said to be one of the best teams playing out of Springfield and have victories over some good teams to their credit this season.

The lineup given by the manager contains names, most of which are unpronounceable and we feel sorry for the umpire if he has to pronounce them to the spectators this afternoon. However, they may be real ball players despite their names.

The game this afternoon will start at 3 o'clock with "Donatue" holding the indicator. Manager Smith will send Fryman to the hill to stop the visitors. The lineups:

Twenty-One Year Old Lad Takes the Measure of Veteran of Many Battles—Outdrives His Opponent and Also Beats Him on Approaches—Victory Fairly Earned

THE COUNTRY CLUB, BROOKLINE Mass., Sept. 9.—The national amateur golf championship was won today by Jess W. Sweetser. Bringing victory to New York, to the Siwanoy Golf Club and to Yale, he vanquished the champion of champions, Charles Evans, Jr., of Chicago, three up and two to play.

Sweetser, who says his name is Jess, not Jesse, is still in his twenty-first year. With one exception he is the youngest champion in the 26 years of title competition in this country. With few exceptions, he was the youngest of the lot of 149 golfers, the most brilliant field ever gathered, for the event, who set out here a week ago for the championship. Over the game as exemplified by eight official and two unofficial representatives of Great Britain, its native heath, and as played by champions and near champions of the United States and its sections, many of them veteran links campaigners, the play of the youth prevailed. Thru stormy days and sunny days Sweetser lasted longest.

To golfing enthusiasts the story of his success today lies in the fact that he beat "Chick" Evans at his own game. It was expected that Sweetser would outdrive Evans—and he did. It was thought he would be off on his approaches and that Evans would beat him at this, the department of play in which Chick is acknowledged the best in the world, but he did not. Instead Sweetser was usually straight ahead and it was Chick who was oftentimes in the rough, who was trapped or bunkered, trying to get to the greens and who, once felt short or over ran in putting for the hole.

CARDINALS WIN FREE HITTING GAME 12-10

Cards Make Five Runs in Ninth and Reds Come Back With Four in Their Half—Pinelli's Wild Throws Lose Game.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 9.—St. Louis won a free hitting and raggedly played game from Cincinnati 12 to 10. Keck and Sell were both taken out in mid-game and their successors were hit hard. The Cardinals made five runs in the ninth inning on five hits and two wild throws by Pinelli and the Reds came back in their half and scored four on five hits. A great catch by Schultz in right field probably prevented the home team from tying or winning in the ninth. The score:

Aside from the several stymies which the Metropolitan expert laid for the Chicago star, Evans saw at least two heartbreaking twists of luck in favor of his opponent just when he appeared to be in a position to cut down Sweetser's lead. In the afternoon round when but two down Evans played a perfect second to the twenty-seventh green only to see Jess drop his from a hard lie, using a ribbed masher, four feet from the cup and sink a birdie three. On the next hole the easterner got away a bad drive and lay deep in the rough while Chick was only 15 feet from the pin with a niblick second at the end of a 325 yard hole. It looked like a sure advantage for Evans but Sweetser's masher second after landing in the rough broke and to the left of the green tricked down on the velvet turf and rolled up to a position as good as that of Evans. The break appeared to disturb Chick and as inches short with his putt. The best he could do then was to halve. These two breaks might be said to mark the turning point in the match.

Neither player held entirely to the form he had shown in the earlier round, particularly the semi-finals. Birdie scores frequent in the preliminary rounds of the match play were not conspicuous. Sweetser's 36 for the second nine holes of the forenoon was the only par score of the day.

Since the departure of Connolly, the Little Rock slugger to the Cleveland Americans, Schulte of Mobile has gone to the front in home run hitting with a string of 12.

RECORDS LOWERED IN N. A. A. U. MEET

Joie Ray Wins Mile for Fifth Consecutive Time — Javelin Records are One of Those Lowered.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 9.—Championship records in three events were lowered today in the National A. A. U. senior track and field title tournament in which more than 300 of the leading athletes of the country competed. Joie Ray of the Illinois A. C. won the mile event for the fifth consecutive time defeating J. J. Connolly of Boston A. A. in a stirring finish. Matt McGrath of the New York A. C. won both the 16 pound hammer event and the 56 pound weight throw defeating the 1921 title holder in the latter event. DeHart Hubbard, negro lad of Cincinnati, Ohio, a University of Michigan student winner of the junior broad jump championship yesterday took that event and the hop-skip-jump in today's meet.

The new records are in the three mile walk the running high jump and the javelin throw. William Plant of the Morningside Athletic club, New York clipped one-tenth of a second off the old walking mark of 21 minutes 50.1-5 seconds set by G. H. Goulding of Toronto in 1917.

D. P. Alberts of the Chicago A. A. and Harold Osborne of the Illinois A. C. broke the old running high record of 6 feet 4 1/2 inches made by J. Murphy of Notre Dame in 1920. They cleared the bar at 6 feet 5 1/4 inches.

Flint Hanner of the Los Angeles A. C. threw the javelin 193 feet 2 1/4 inches. The former record was 192 feet 10 1/2 inches made by M. S. Angier of the Illinois A. C. in 1920. Angier did not compete.

Robert McCollister of the New York police department displayed sterling qualities in the taking the 150 yard dash from J. A. Leoney of the Meadow Brook club, Philadelphia; Eddie Farrell, New York, A. C. and William Hayes, Boston A. A. U.

The pole vault was won by Ed Knourek, Illinois A. C. who went 13 feet for a victory over Ralph Sparrow, western star, his closest competitor.

Leoney also won the 220 yard run in 22 and 1-10. Harold Jones, Illinois A. C. was second and Loren Murchison, also Illinois A. C., fourth.

In the 220 yard hurdles, J. C. Taylor, New York, A. C. won over Karl Anderson, Illinois A. C. who was second and Charles Brookins, Iowa university, third. Pat McDonald, another New York policeman won the 16 pound shot put for the sixth time.

Earl Thompson 1921 champion was an easy winner in the 10 high hurdles. Thompson thru a misunderstanding ran easily in his trial heat, in the 200 yard hurdles and was content to finish second. This failed to qualify him for the final but the officials asserted that they had ruled that the second man in the slowest trial heat would be eliminated.

New York Athletic club athletes took point honors with a total of 43. Illinois A. C. was second with 36. The Boston A. A. third with 17 and Chicago and Los Angeles clubs tied for fourth with 16.

Truth, as Usual, Has It All Over Fiction

"STUBBY" MACK

By Billy Evans
 Turn the spotlight on "Stubby" Mack, the Chicago White Sox's latest pitching recruit to make good.

During his major league debut at Boston Aug. 16, Mack lost a well pitched game, 5 to 3. For six innings he was on the way to a shutout, when loss of control proved his undoing.

One week later he made his second start against Washington, and shut out the Nationals 3 to 0, allowing only five hits.

Pretty fair get-away for a 22-year old recruit!

There is a bit of sport romance in the rise of "Stubby" Mack to the ambition of every youngster who can play ball — the major leagues.

Seven Years Ago
 Seven years ago the Chicago White Sox played an exhibition game at San Diego, Cal. They trained on the coast that year—1915—and as there was an exposition at San Diego, it offered a lucrative field for this exhibition.

In the course of the San Diego game a little Mexican boy sneaked along the White Sox bench, tucked Ray Schalk's favorite catching mitt under his blouse and started for the Mexican quarter of the town.

"Stubby" Mack, then a youngster of 15, saw the theft and gave chase. After catching the fugitive it was necessary for "Stubby" to display his fist superiority, before he regained possession of the glove.

When he returned the glove to Schalk, he was presented with four new balls and an old glove for his honesty.

Still Wears Glove

He still uses the glove.

Seven years later Mack made his debut as a major league pitcher with Schalk as his battery partner. It sounds like a baseball fairy tale but it's plain fact and just goes to prove that truth often is stranger than fiction.

Mack is a product of St. Mary's College, Oakland, which has given to the major leagues such stars as Harry Hooper, Duffy Lewis, Dutch Leonard, Louis Guisto, besides many other big league celebrities.

Success as a college pitcher caused "Stubby" to take a whirl in the minors.

Tried the Minors
 Last year he was with Calgary, in the Western Canada League. This year he went to Seattle, of the Pacific Coast League.

Report has it that Chicago gave Pitcher Ferd Schupp and $25,000 for Mack. The latter came high but his work in his first starts makes it look as if he were worth it.

Mack is a right-hander. He measures about six feet and weighs around 180 pounds. He has good speed and an excellent curve. If he comes through as Robertson, Leverette and Blankenship did, the White Sox will start 1923 with a formidable pitching staff.

MICHIGAN AGGIES FACE HEAVY SCHEDULE

Two Conference Games Feature List Which Includes Five New Opponents.

East Lansing, Sept. 9.—With ten games listed on their 1922 schedule, including two bookings with the Western Conference eleven the Michigan Aggies face the toughest assignment of recent years in the coming gridiron campaign.

The list is headlined by Michigan and Indiana universities, and includes Wabash, South Dakota, Massachusetts Agricultural college, Ohio Wesleyan, Creighton, and St. Louis—a lineup calculated to give Coach Bert Barron's proteges a fully occupied fall of pastime.

Only the two early season games, with Alma and Albion of Michigan college group, can be considered in the light of minor opposition, and even these schools have been causing trouble in late years.

Five of the ten games are with teams never before met by the Michigan Aggies in the gridiron. Indiana, Ohio Wesleyan, Massachusetts Aggies, St. Louis and Creighton have been listed on basket ball and base ball schedules of former years, but this season marks the opening of foot ball relations between these institutions and the local outfit.

Notre Dame, a fixture on M. A. C. schedules for the past decade, does not show in the lineup this fall, while the Michigan, South Dakota and Wabash games mark a continuation of old established rivalries on the foot ball field.

Fifty men have been invited back for the pre-season training camp, which opens on the local field during the coming week, with Barron at the head of the staff of coaches who will have control of the workouts.

FORMER NOTRE DAME STAR AT GRINNELL

GRINNELL, Iowa. — A. H. Elward, former Notre Dame foot and basket ball star and successful coach of athletic teams representing St. John's Military Academy, Delafield, Wis., and the naval stations at Hampton Roads, Va., and Newport, R. I., will succeed W. H. (Bud) Saunders, as coach of football and basketball at Grinnell College.

Elward comes to Grinnell from the naval station at Hampton Roads, Va., where he has acted as director and coach of athletics for the past three years.

Since his graduation from Notre Dame, Elward has turned out high calibre foot ball and basket ball teams. He started his foot ball experience at Exeter and then attended Notre Dame, where he played alongside Knute Rockne famous Notre Dame mentor at the present time; Charley Bachman, Kansas Aggies coach, and "Biff" Lee, who will assist Coach Finger at Cornell this season. Although weighing only 110 pounds, Elward played the end position successfully and received mention from many critics for the All-American position while playing at Notre Dame.

OLD TIMER PROVIDES THRILLS IN TOURNEY

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9.—A champion of 16 years ago provided the thrills today at the national lawn tennis singles championship tournament on the courts of the Germantown Cricket Club when William J. Clothier of Philadelphia who held the national title in 1906 eliminated Jose M. Alonzo of the Spanish Davis cup team. The score was 6-1, 6-0, 4-6, 3-6, 6-4.

The first two sets were so easy for Clothier that it seemed as if the match would be another of the walk-away victories in which the better known players figured yesterday and today. But beginning with the third, which the Castilian captured every point won represented a determined fight. The match between Vincent Richards, youthful American Davis cup team member and Charles S. Garland of Pittsburgh which had been expected to furnish most of the excitement for the spectators proved disappointingly easy for Richards. He won 6-1, 6-2, 7-5.

Among the favorite to come thru without great difficulty were William T. Tilden, the title holder, Watson M. Washburn of New York, Manuel Alonzo, star of the Spanish Davis cup team and brother of Jose, Howard and Robert Kinsey of San Francisco; Lucien Williams, the Yale University expert; James O. Anderson and Pat O'Hara Wood of the Australian Davis cup team; Willis E. Davis of San Francisco; Zenzo Shimizu of Japan, Wallace F. Johnson of Philadelphia; R. Norris Williams of Boston, American Davis cup team captain and former national champion and Francis T. Hunter of New Rochelle, N. Y.

Patterson and William Johnston of San Francisco, former national champion who are looked upon as the most dangerous rival Tilden has for the title did not compete today.

Public School Notes

All of the public schools in Jacksonville open Monday morning, Sept. 11th at the regular time; Junior and Senior High Schools at 8:45; elementary school at 9:00.

Children in the elementary schools should attend the school in the sub-districts where they live. The enrollment this year will be very heavy and it will be very difficult to make any transfers whatever. Certainly no transfers can be made until the schools are well started.

Attendance at school the first day is important for several reasons, among them that the child gets seated properly and that he secures the correct list of books.

Children entering the first grade must be 6 years old by Thanksgiving. Birth records will be demanded in doubtful cases.

The first morning of school each child will be furnished with a correct list of books and supplies. Parents will aid very materially if they will check over this list carefully to determine what books are necessary and see that the child is properly supplied.

All pupils who have heretofore been attending the Open Air School will report to the elementary school in the district where they reside. This is made necessary because of the fact that the Open Air School is still in the process of remodeling and that it will not be in operation for a few weeks.

MUSIC CLASS

Miss Olive Engel, 414 E. State St., will accept a limited number of piano pupils for the school year. Miss Engel is a graduate of the Illinois Woman's College in both piano and organ. Those interested will kindly write or call at the above address.

Returning Wednesday evening Mr. Massey encountered twelve miles of mud, about all the way to Tallula, a copious rain having fallen. Several autos came to grief along the way, the weathered the storm all right and was sorry to find it dry at home.

DECATUR PLANS FOR STATE PYTHIAN MEET

Annual Convention of Order Will Be Held September 26 to 28—Special Preparations For Day.

Local interest is already being shown in the 53rd annual convention of the Knights of Pythias to be held September 26th to 28th in Decatur. John J. Reeve, supreme representative and M. F. Dunlap, grand master of exchequer will attend as will John B. Siebert, representing No. 152 and Jewell E. Scott, representing Favorite Lodge No. 376.

The Decatur Review gives some facts about the approaching convention.

This is the second time that Decatur has been so honored, and the event will be an important one in this city both from the standpoint of the number of persons this will bring here and because the matter of making Decatur a permanent meeting place of the lodge is to be decided at this time.

The question was brought up at the convention last year, but was laid on the table.

Orlando Headquarters

Arrangements have been made for the headquarters of the Grand Lodge to be at the Orlando hotel, while the business sessions will be held in the Y. M. C. A. annex. Headquarters for the Knights of Khorassan have been arranged for at the St. Nicholas hotel.

The state chairman, Samuel H. Bransky, of Chicago, will be in the city on the Saturday preceding the opening of the convention to complete the plans for the coming of the Dokays. Owing to the large number of persons who are expected to be visiting in the city at the time, at least 4,500 are expected by the organization, the lodge feels that the capacity of the hotels will be taxed to care for the guests, and citizens who have rooms to rent for this purpose are requested to get in touch with Kenneth Sherman, who is chairman of the hotel committee.

Dokay Day

The main day of the convention will be known as Dokay Day and the Grand lodge has set aside this day to the playground of the order.

The dramatic order of the Khorassan has a membership of 200,000 in the United States. Illinois has ten temples with a membership of about eight thousand. They are coming to Decatur to take part in the program and demonstration on Dokay Day. They will be accompanied by bugle and drum corps and numerous bands. Practically every city in Illinois, of any size, will be represented in Decatur on that day to take part in the big parade at four o'clock.

The Chicago temple of Dokays had the honor in the opening ceremonies of the Pageant of Progress in Chicago several weeks ago to lead the parade to the pier. There were one thousand members of the lodge dressed in their gorgeous costumes at the head of this parade and they attracted considerable attention.

To Be Big Day

The plan is that this Tuesday shall not have a dull minute in it. The festivities will last until a late hour and will include, beside the parade, street circus, vaudeville, brigand teams, who will give several exhibition drills on the street. In the evening there will be a grand free public street dance with music furnished by the Chicago Dokays band. One of the features of the big parade will be numerous floats with reference to various phases of the order, one being the children in the orphan's home in a gaily decorated float.

Pythian Sisters.

In addition to the Knights, the Pythian Sisters, three hundred and fifty or four hundred of them, will be in session at the same time. Tuesday night they plan for a grand ball to be held in the Orlando hotel ball room. This, however, will not conflict with the Dokays' celebration.

The local Knights of Pythias temple, corner Edward and Williams streets, now under construction, will be ready by those dates and will furnish suitable quarters and rest rooms.

All the lodges in this district which comprises about twenty counties, are especially requested to be here the twenty-seventh.

A picnic will be given the children of the Pythian Orphans' Home by the Peoria lodge and Peoria Dokays Tuesday.

Herbert Challiner of Joy Prairie came to the city yesterday.

About 80 per cent of Accidents at Night to Auto Drivers Comes from Glaring Headlights

So far manufacturers have not made any safety improvements on headlights, which will help to decrease danger of glaring lights.

We have practically the same lights today that we had in the early inception of autos, with perhaps the exception of having larger lamps, more glaring and more dangerous, to approaching cars.

Several different types of lens are used, but none are sufficient to give good driving light and at the same time eliminate blinding drivers of other cars.

Manufacturers have tried their best to solve the light problem and have even gone so far as to paint the upper half of the lens, thinking that this would to a large extent eliminate danger, but that did not prove satisfactory.

There is no question but manufacturers, states and safety officials are interested in something that would eliminate danger from glaring headlights. They realize that in using dimmers on country roads one is not safe so far as he himself and the occupants of his car are concerned, and that rather than to take chances, he will not use dimmers, hence glaring lights and results are often accidents.

We have succeeded in INVENTING A HEADLIGHT REFLECTOR that enables drivers of ALL MAKES OF CARS to drive at night in perfect SAFETY to himself and others, and they are worth their weight in gold to anyone who values his own and his dear ones' lives and also respect the other fellow's right in protecting himself and loved ones.

You should investigate this. Call CHRIS F. ANDERSEN, telephone 1834 for demonstration and be convinced.

ARTISTIC TEACHING
SHOULD BE GOAL
Supt. H. A. Perrin Made Important Address to Teachers of Public Schools Saturday —
Over Work Plans for Year.

Following a custom of several years standing, H. A. Perrin, superintendent of the Jacksonville schools, met the teachers at a session Saturday morning. The address to the teachers was inspirational in its purpose, in which Mr. Perrin emphasized the dignity and importance of educational work and held up high ideals of teaching service.

At the conclusion of the address a general survey of the plans for the school year was presented and an informal conference was held.

In his introductory statement
Mr. Perrin said:
"It is my pleasure to welcome this corps of teachers to our community and to our school system. To those who have been in the system for at least a few years, the greatest welcome that can be given is to assure you that our opportunities for service are greater this year than ever before. To those who are just entering upon their teaching duties here, it is a pleasure and satisfaction to guarantee to you a community which prides itself in its educational advantages, and a representative school board as a controlling body which gives untiringly of its time and energy in order that the schools of this community shall be the best that conditions will warrant. Our city is renowned for its history, its beauty and its hospitality. Our schools are but a reflection of that type of citizenry which endeavors to give the most appropriate opportunity to every boy and girl. To these conditions we welcome you.

Teaching a Profession.
"Teaching is a profession. During the past decade more advancement has been made in public school objectives and methods than in a century previous. Scientific investigations both of social and individual needs have made a large contribution to the material of instruction and to the technique of teaching. We as teachers of today are heirs of this wealth.
It assures us definiteness of procedure and measurement of results which far surpass the old type guess method. It is our aim to keep this spirit of progress and achievement alive in the operation of our city schools. This body of teachers represents standard training in many institutions of learning and practice teaching under careful supervision.
You bring an abundance of knowledge and suggestion which if properly used will help our system to be broad, progressive, and varied. You as a group and individually can cooperate in such a way as to be a guarantee against ingrowing and provincialism. We ask you to feel free to bring your best to the surface. Make it available for discussion and adoption in our working plans for this school year. By so doing you will be truly helping the community, the school system and incidentally yourself.

Be an Artistic Teacher.
"To you is entrusted the training of approximately twenty-five hundred children of this community.
This is a real man's and woman's job.
It should inspire each of us to touch these young lives with a spirit of interest, enthusiasm and inspiration which will bring out the best that is in each one. The real teacher is indeed an artist. It is only by a thorough understanding of the child, the objectives set up for accomplishment

and the methods of achieving the same that skillful teaching can result.

"Teaching is no more a matter of assigning and hearing lessons. It is creating an educational atmosphere in which objectives are definite and materials used and methods employed are appropriate to the ends desired.
It is imparting the tools of knowledge and skills and then training in their application to various useful fields.
No greater task has been set for any mortal man than to aid his fellows in their well being. Here the teacher's opportunity is supreme. Teaching is a definite process proceeding from set objectives to their accomplishments for each individual in the degree to which nature has endowed him. It is the teacher's task to become so skillful in her work that each child grasps
the opportunities to as full an extent as possible. Here is where the teacher becomes an artist or a mere mechanic.
The public has made possible your training and has entrusted you with the responsibility of using it in a skillful, artistic manner in training
our young people to become responsible, reliable and energetic. Let us vow at the beginning of this year that we shall study diligently to be artistic in our work endeavoring to give each child the utmost chance to develop the best that there is in him.

Mastery or Fundamentals.
"The tools of learning are indispensable. A reasonable degree of proficiency is necessary if the pupil is to make headway in school and later in every day life. Mastery is the word which represents in our system that proficiency which enables the pupil to move on unit by unit toward successful achievement. To this task we must set our aims and endeavors without stint. Whether it be on the elementary or high school level of learning, progress can be made only as the essential processes
and tools of the subject are mastered.

Application Important.
"No longer is there much merit attached to doing a task simply because it is hard. A lesson may be formal or alive just in proportion as the teacher reaches out in the every day
use of the process and finds wide applications. Applications do not come by themselves. Psychologically we know that applications have to be sought and used just as positively as do the processes themselves. The physics or history or literature or arithmetic may be just as narrow or as broad and vital to the individual as we make it through the applications to useful fields.

Individual Welfare.
"The modern school considers the welfare of the individual at each and every turn. The social group places him in a natural working condition and the individual correlates give that attention which makes for personal mastery and achievement. The skillful teacher sees the individual at work in the social group and trains
from this standpoint.

Physical Fitness.
"The physical welfare of the growing child is taking on larger and larger emphasis. Throughout our system we aim to place all the stress upon this feature which the individual welfare of the pupils and the means at hand warrant. It is only when the physical mechanism is in health and is working properly that the pupil is able to be at his best and to profit
most from the school opportunities.
In safeguarding and building health
we as teachers have an important mission. Each year we have been able to give increasing emphasis to this factor and to this task we ask your whole hearted cooperation."

This introductory address was followed by a general survey of the plans for the school year.

AMERICAN LEGION
NEWS NOTES
NEW ORLEANS.—More than 2,200 sailors and 90 officers of the United States Navy will come to New Orleans during the American Legion national convention October 16-20, as the result of a recent order made by Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt.
The naval men will come with a fleet of one cruiser and six destroyers ordered to New Orleans for the convention. The cruiser, Birmingham, flagship of Rear Admiral W. C. Cole, who will command the fleet has a normal quota of 1,000 men and 60 officers. The six destroyers that will accompany the Birmingham will have crews of 200 men and five officers each.
Hydroplanes ordered to fly to the convention from Pensacola, Fla., will include some of the largest models in existence. Their wing span measures 100 feet. All planes will be twin screw equipped with Liberty motors.
Arrangements have been made for the appearance at the convention of a band of 20 pieces from the naval training station at Pensacola.

Jersey City, N. J.—According to a report received by the New Jersey American Legion State
Sena or Joseph F. Wallworth of Camden will introduce a bill in the legislature to have the people vote on what shall be done with the unexpended balance of $800,- 000 left after paying the state bonus. The introduction of the bill is contingent on Gov. Edward I. Edwards calling a special session of the legislature. The Legion seeks the special assembly in order that the fund may be used to build one or more hospitals for the care of sick and disabled world war veterans.

New Orleans.—Nationally
prominent players from all sections of the country will compete for the tennis championship of the American Legion at the annual national convention of that organization in New Orleans, October 16-20.
The convention tennis tournament will be held in three divisions. Men of the Legion will play for the title in both singles and doubles, while women of the Legion and members of the Legion Auxiliary will play for championship in singles only. The tournament will open October 16
on the courts of the New Orleans
Lawn Tennis club and will end October 20. Preliminary rounds will be held October 16 and 17,
the semi-finals October 19 and the finals on October 20. Silver loving cups will go to title winners in all divisions.
Among those eligible for play
in the Legion's net tournament are: William T. Tilden, national champion; William M. Johnston, Washburn, R. Norris Williams,
Wallace F. Johnston, Watson
William E. Davis, Dean Mathey.

Roland Roberts and Marshall Allen. These men are shown on the national ranking list of mens' singles of the United States Lawn Tennis Association as among the twenty best players.

Washington, D. C.—Resolutions against the employment by the government of women whose husbands also are drawing salaries from governmental agencies were passed at a recent meeting of George Washington post of the American Legion at Washington, D. C. The Legion post named thirteen women, among them
Mrs. Carolina Harding Votaw, President Harding's sister. The Legion asserts Mrs. Votaw's husband holds a job of superintendent of prisons which pays $4,000 a year while she draws $5,000 as head of the industrial service section of the Veterans Bureau. The Legionnaires hold that one job in a family is enough and that the women's places should be filled by former service men.

GENERAL ADVANCE IN MARKET PRICES

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—Buying of selected specialties several of which were pushed up from two to nearly 8 points, provided the advance in today's brief holiday session of the stock market.
Profit-taking in the last hour
gave the appearance of irregularly loss of a point taking place in Crutcher, Studebaker and Marine preferred but the general list held up well and in many cases final prices were at the highest figures of the day.

Shares of dividend paying railroads, especially those likely to benefit from the heavy coal and grain movements this fall were in much better demand. Union Pacific closed at a net gain of 18 points.

General Electric was up 2 points and Railway Steel Spring was up 1.

Total sales were 436,100
shares.

The weekly clearing house statement showed a decrease of $1,270,000 in loans, discounts and investments an increase of $6,298,000 in cash and an increase of $2,324,000 in the reserve of member banks in the federal reserve bank, the excess reserve showing an increase of $7,541,000.

Foreign exchange rates were steady.

Liberty Bonds held steady.
Total bond sales (par value)
were $6,105,000.
